

Babylon and the Merchants

The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! (Rev 18:15-18)

The first banks were Babylonian temples. Jesus condemned the Jewish temple because the temple had become a money-making machine<sup>1</sup> run by priest-bankers. Fast forward to the present and the system is run by the same priests. In fact, (((they))) managed to create a private “bank” to rule all banks (one bank to rule them all) and fool the stupid masses into believing that they are not a privately-owned money monopoly.<sup>2</sup> This bank controls the world “reserve” currency because it made deals with the oil producers and because it is backed by the only military power with a global reach.

The masses are fooled by the “isms” -- “communism” (or the more benign socialism) or by “capitalism” flip sides of the same coin called “enslavement”. If only we had the “pure Communism” preached by Marx and Engels, we would not have failed with 100 million dead and dysfunctional economies with a detached ruling oligarchy. If only we had “pure Capitalism” but the reality of capitalism has always been entwined with cronyism, fraud, slavery, offshoring, tax evasion, and monopolism, going right back to its origins in the 1660s. Its celebrated “progress for all” derived mostly from offshore looting (think India or the Opium War) and the offloading of consequences “off the books” in “externalities” - garbage, pollution, and recurring recessions impoverishing the population in common while producing profits for a lucky few. Or perhaps the one “ism” that is happy to be either left or right (fascism).

<sup>2</sup> Disclaimer: Analysis of the financial system and climate change are based on personal research and no claims to infallibility or special inside knowledge is made. However, most people “feel” the wrongness of the narrative. If, we can look at the sky and predict the weather why is it that we cannot discern the signs of the times? (Matt 16:2-3).

Ah, I hear the purists say.... but capitalism has raised living standards across the world. More people have been lifted out of poverty and they live longer. At what cost? Is the wealth real? Inflated assets are not real wealth they can (and will disappear) overnight and raised “living standards” and “life expectancy” have peaked with drug use, diabetes, obesity, autism, depression, anxiety and infertility on the rise.

All these systems (capitalist/communist etc) fail because of human nature, which is sinful and weak, greedy and narcissistic and in the worst cases psychopathic with absolutely no regard whatsoever to long term consequences. But the merchants will care. They will weep and wail. They will quake with absolute terror.

The coming financial collapse will hit like a freight train. It will be nothing like the GFC which will seem like a hiccup by comparison. The question on many people’s minds is whether this is an “accidental” symptom of human greed or whether this is deliberately planned.

Well looking back at the GFC the (bought and paid for) politicians purposely allowed the banks, after Congress repealed Glass-Steagall,<sup>3</sup> to cobble together and sell US subprime mortgages to banks around the world. The now-famous bubble which popped in 2008, when American banks promoted the CDOs they had invented which were made up of overvalued mortgages of US homes. (millions of ordinary people played along and became “rich” – we are all responsible, but we are not all guilty).

'CDOs (Collateralized Debt Objects): structured financial products that pool together cash flow-generating assets and repackage this asset pool into discrete tranches that can be sold to investors. A collateralized debt obligation is named for the pooled assets — such as mortgages, ...

The devastating bubble of 2008 which destroyed the economies of the nations whose banks and institutions bought these debt obligations which were collateralized by mortgages of the cheapest American homes that had been bought by no-credit individuals without down payments. When the dust finally settled (it's still fluttering around as we speak), America, whose mortgages collapsed and whose banks sold those worthless frauds around the world, emerged in the best financial condition in the world because it printed dollars (the world reserve currency). So, the destroyers are rewarded, and their plan is progressing towards its inevitable end.

Outpouring of the seven vials

The seven vials are about to be poured out. The economy is a surplus energy equation, not a monetary one, and growth in output (and in the global population) since the Industrial Revolution has resulted from the harnessing of ever-greater quantities of energy. But the critical relationship between energy production and the energy cost of extraction is now deteriorating so rapidly that the economy as we have known it for more than two centuries is beginning to unravel.<sup>4</sup>

And then there is “climate change” which is not “man-made” but is God’s doing. The elite know what is coming and they are stalling for time while they prepare. They know that we are headed for an “extinction event” and they also know that it cannot be prevented by “alternative energy”. In fact, they know that EROI (see report note 2) means that we need to cut population levels rather than expand life expectancy. This should be no problem because pensions in the West will evaporate and people will simply die of despair and poverty especially when health care is rationed and becomes unaffordable. Their evil is unlimited, but the ends justify the means (don’t they always). Got to break a few eggs to usher in Utopia (their version is them ruling the world).

Their strategy, is to suck up the wealth, buy property in countries that will be least effected by climate events and establish an authoritarian control mechanism to keep the plebs from hanging them once they realize how badly they have been duped.

In the meantime, they pretend that people can prevent the maunder minimum, stop the magnetic pole shift and halt the increase in cosmic rays (which disrupts climate patterns and leads to famine increased earthquake and volcanicity activity<sup>5</sup>) with more “windmills” and “solar power”(LOL).

Your future

The result of globalism is feudalism. The 99% support the 1%. In that case the 99% can be greatly reduced (culled) and much of their labour replaced by robots and AI. Globalists want open borders for trade, goods, services, labour in order to find the lowest direct costs possible. Globalists want higher costs for those items they control, such as health care, health insurance, food production costs, anything related to the education cartel, and anything else the 99% must buy.

Interest rates near, at, or below 0% along with QE to replace capital from savings and contribute to the wealth of the 1%. ZIRP/NIRP requires people to work forever since savings is pointless. Also, the labour the 99% provides is a commodity and only the lowest cost

Professor Valentina Zharkova Breaks Her Silence and CONFIRMS "Super" Grand Solar Minimum

<https://electroverse.net/professor-valentina-zharkova-breaks-her-silence-and-confirms-super-grand-solar-minimum/> The following article has been included because it aims at Zharkova debunking Zharkova's science:

The 'imminent mini ice age' myth is back, and it's still wrong. (The Guardian) However, NOTE: The first graph covers a 200-year period (compare this with one over the last million years or longer). The second and third graph only spans the last 2,000 years (we have been living in an inter-glacial or warming period for the last 11,000 years). The article concludes that, "Zharkova believes her solar model is correct, but at best it can only try to predict when the next quiet solar period will occur. Its influence on Earth's climate is outside her expertise, and the peer-reviewed research is clear that it would be a minimal impact". Comment: This is the establishment fighting back. Note that her science (mathematics, physics and statistical analysis) is not disputed (it is correct). Her science represents a breakthrough in understanding sunspot magnetic dynamics. It is the "impact on Earth's climate" that is disputed. This rebuttal uses recent climate data to disprove the impact; the fact that the earth has been through multiple ice-ages in the past is ignored. If your living depends on a certain outcome you will find that outcome, this is goal seeking "science". The biggest influence on climate is the sun. When the sun is quiet, we are not protected from cosmic rays. Cosmic rays influence cloud formation, volcanic and earthquake activity and magnetic pole shift. Before a cooling period we are hit with "weather weirding", strange weather due to alteration of jet streams and ocean currents. So, expect downpours, giant hail, extreme heat, extreme cold etc., until it settles down. The mid-West in the USA suffered a polar vortex and Europe is suffering from extreme heat. This does not bode well for agriculture. If this theory is correct (we think it is) the mild climate zone will be reduced to the 15th parallel (north and south) which means the Mid-East will be at the centre of the temperate zone.

commodity that meets the basic specs of the job wins. The objective of globalists is to turn the 99% into a commodity while forcing them to buy what the 1% sells.

In the meantime, destruction of society continues – destroy the family and people are rootless and easily manipulated and managed. People are corporatized and commoditized they become a human resource to be used and discarded. Destroy marriage. Destroy sexual and racial harmony. Destroy breadwinners (tell women they are better off at work paying strangers to raise their children). Destroy savings (NIRP/ZIRP). Destroy wages (stagnation). Destroy education (replace with indoctrination). Destroy life (abortion). Destroy masculinity (toxic). Destroy femininity (equality). Psychologically manipulate with constant fear (anxiety, depression). Promote deviancy and deride any form of normalcy. Propagandize and Gas Light and lie, and lie, and then lie some more and then lie about the lies so that no one knows or can even find out the truth anymore.

But if you know the truth.... the truth will set you free.

What is truth?

Jesus Christ is the truth and the way and the life

What next?

They will become more authoritarian as the system fails. And they will lie even more (if that is possible). They will start wars and there will be more “terrorist” incidents and when people have become nearly completely insane, when they have brother fighting against brother, men turning against women, black turning against white, children against parents...then they will collapse the system because they will have hoovered up all the wealth and converted it into their new 666 currency. And the people will be grateful to them because they offer security and safety... because they have brainwashed and propagandized them. Because most people think that this world and this life is all that there is. And you will be a serf and you will like it...because they will become like God being “omniscient” and “omnipresent” through technology.

Original Sin

This is none other than “original sin” the Causa sui – grasping at divinity, wanting to be like God, all powerful and all seeing. They are drunk on “power” not understanding that divine power rests on moral purity. Nothing can compare to God for his purity, foreknowledge and wisdom. Power is the least of his attributes. However, when He unleashes that power this wicked scum will find out the meaning of real power and justice. Their global Babel project will fail. It was always destined to fail. The devil has but a short time and he will thrash about in impotent anger until he is imprisoned in the abyss (warning note to literalists, this is metaphorical language).

Who is behind this play for global dominance?

It looks like we have different parties wanting to achieve the same ends using different means.<sup>6</sup> Sometimes they cooperate and sometimes they compete. You must do your own homework and draw your own conclusions. Suffice to say it would be wrong to blame one single ethnicity or people, but coalitions have been formed. Every nation has good and bad; however, globalism extends beyond borders and incorporates transnational oligarchs and elites. It is a big club (and you ain't in it) but if you "follow the money" you will find out who buys and sells "the souls of men".

No more forever

Be of good cheer. Whatever happens they will fail. Their robberies will fail, their murders will fail, their warmongering will fail, their lies will fail, the sight of their eyes will fail, and the strength of their hand will fail, and they will perish forever. You want to own the world? You want to enslave humanity? You want to create hell on earth? You will be overthrown with violence. The Lord God will repay you in full and he will avenge his saints. A millstone will be tied around your neck. All your priests and bankers will be destroyed.

<sup>6</sup> Leading up to WWI it was the British who wanted to retain and expand global dominance through a shadow group (Milner, Rhodes et al) supported and financed by Zionists who had their own agenda (Balfour Declaration see; http://www.biblaridion.info/video/Jacob\_guile.pdf). The Anglo-US relationship is currently threatened because of British double dealing: The 'Special Relationship' Is Collapsing... and That's a Good Thing <https://www.strategic-culture.org/news/2019/08/01/special-relationship-collapsing-thats-good-thing/> Despite double dealing by the UK the Anglo-US-Zionist right-wing alliance (Trump/Farage/Adelson/Johnson) is still strong on the nationalist front (e.g., Brexit) but is increasingly challenged by the globalist (open borders), Marxist-EU-Zionist movement (Soros/Democrats/Ursula von der Leyen etc). In the end both movements will achieve similar outcomes via different routes, namely, totalitarianism and centralized power. Note: The prominent names listed does not imply that they are necessarily in cahoots or even aware of the larger picture- some (not all) of them are themselves funded and manipulated and totally oblivious to the larger picture. They may (for example) be taking actions for what they believe is in the "national-interest" or "in the interest of the EU" etc but all the while they are being used as pawns in a larger chess game. This is the long-game that has been played for at least 150 years. A geo-political battle is being fought to consolidate a new world order- will it be a fascist-capitalist and largely nationalist new world order or a fascist-communist centrally controlled world order? In both cases the "money-power" will exercise control after they have collapsed the financial system. P.S. The recent attempted coup in Venezuela (failed), the problems around the Moscow elections (failed) and the Hong Kong riots are colour revolutions like the one that replaced the Ukrainian government in 2014 and the attempted Turkish coup in 2016. All are Anglo-US inspired and supported (including the "Arab-Spring" which had a large Zionist input). All this can be discovered with minimal research and critical thinking were it not for the soporific condition of the general populace. Soon any alternative to the official narrative will be banned (and punished) as "hate-speech" or "conspiracy-theory". Examples of official and prevailing explanations are Saddam Hussein's weapons of mass destruction, Assad's use of chemical weapons, the Skripal poisoning, Iranian nukes, Russian invasion of Ukraine, and the official explanation by the US government for the destruction of Libya. If a person doubts official explanations such as these, that person is a "conspiracy theorist."

“And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all” (Rev 18:21).

What can we do?

Keep the faith. Preach and speak your mind. Do not be bullied or cowered. Unfortunately, you will not be “raptured” away or spared any suffering or any persecution. Your duty, if a true Christian, will be to witness and overcome like your Lord. You will be given power to overcome and in so doing you will add to the victory of Christ while at the same time the enemies of God will fill up the measure of their fathers adding yet more opprobrium. The patience of God has almost ended and every evil deed against one of these “little ones” will hasten the end. The wrath of God and of the Lamb is a terrible thing and the whole earth will flee from his presence.
