

Jews and Jesuits

Marranos or converso were Spanish and Portuguese Jews living in the Iberian Peninsula who converted or were forced to convert to Christianity during the Middle Ages yet continued to practice Judaism in secret.¹

The founder of the Jesuits, Ignatius of Loyola, was a converso, (convert) and so was his successor Diego Lainex. Most conversos practiced Judaism in secret and were considered "Judaizers" and therefore called Marranos by the Spanish. The irony is that the chief inquisitor was a Jewish convert who tortured other Jews in order to establish their loyalty to the church.

This is what Edward Hendrie says, (Solving the Mystery of Babylon, Great Mountain Publishing, 2011) [Page 48]: footnotes not included; some pages only partially rendered

As we have seen, the Roman Catholic church represents a gentile front for Jewish religious doctrines. Jews from time to time go from supporting the Catholic church to undermining it.

Ultimately, the Jews have plans to rid themselves of that front when it no longer serves their purposes. It is only in that sense that Pinay's characterization of the Jews as a fifth column within the Catholic church has validity.

A good example of the duality of the Jews being both a defender of the church and also its destroyer is the Catholic order of the Jesuits. What most do not know is that the Jesuit order is a Crypto-Jewish order of priests. While it may have gentile priests as members, it was founded by Jews and today has close secret ties with other clandestine Jewish organizations. Benjamin Disraeli was a Jew and a former Prime Minister of England; he revealed that the first Jesuits were Jews. Ignatius of Loyola's secretary, Polanco, was of Jewish descent and was the only person present at Loyola's deathbed. Ignatius Loyola himself was a crypto-Jew of the Occult Kabbalah. A crypto-Jew is a Jew who converts to another religion and outwardly embraces the new religion, while secretly maintaining Jewish practices.

James Lainez (LG. 1558-1565), Who succeeded Ignatius Loyola (J.G. 1541-1556) as the second Jesuit General, was also Of Jewish descent. The fourth Jesuit General was a Belgian Jew named Eberhard Mercurian

(J.G. 1573-1580). Jews were attracted to the Jesuit order and joined in large numbers. Some of the most influential Jesuits in history, such as Francisco Ribera (1537-1591) and Emanuel Lacunza (1731-1801), were Jews. During the 5th General Congregation in 1593 Of the 27 Jesuits who proposed changes to the Constitutions, 25 were of either Jewish or Moorish descent. Many of the Jesuit doctrines are similar to those found in the Kabbalah and Babylonian Talmud.

The Illuminati order was not invented by Adam Weishaupt, but rather renewed and reformed. The first known Illuminati order (Alumbrado) was founded in 1492 by Spanish Jews, called "Marranos," who were also known as "crypto-Jews."

With violent persecution in Spain and Portugal beginning in 1391, hundreds of thousands of Jews had been forced to convert to the faith Of the Roman Catholic Church. Publicly they were now Roman Catholics, but secretly they practiced Judaism, including following the Talmud and the Cabala. The Marranos were able to teach their children secretly about Judaism, but in particular the Talmud and the Cabala, and this huge group of Jews has survived to this very day. After 1540 many Marranos opted to flee to England, Holland, France, the Ottoman empire (Turkey), Brazil and Other places in South and Central America.

The Marranos kept strong family ties and they became very wealthy and influential in the nations where they lived. But as is the custom with all Jewish people, it did not matter in what nation they lived, their loyalty was to themselves and Judaism.

In 1491 San Ignacio De Loyola was born in the Basque province of Guipuzcoa, Spain. His parents were Marranos and at the time of his birth the family was very wealthy. As a young man he became a member of the Jewish Illuminati order in Spain. As a cover for his crypto Jewish activities, he became very active as a Roman Catholic. On May 20, 1521 Ignatius (as he was now called) was wounded in a battle and became a semi-cripple. Unable to succeed in the military and political arena, he started a quest for holiness and eventually ended up in Paris where he studied for the priesthood. In 1539 he had moved to Rome where he founded the "JESUIT ORDER," which was to become the most vile, bloody and persecuting order in the Roman Catholic Church. In 1540, the current Pope Paul III approved the order. At Loyola's death in 1556 there were more than 1000 members in the Jesuit order, located in a number of nations.

Setting up the Jesuit order, Ignatius Loyola devised an elaborate spy system, so that no One in the Order was safe. If there was any opposition, death would come swiftly. The Jesuit order not only became a destructive arm Of the Roman Catholic Church; it also developed into a secret intelligence service. While the Popes relied more and more on the Jesuits, they were unaware that the hard-core leadership were Jewish, and that these Jews held membership in the Illuminati order Which despised and hated the Roman Catholic Church.

The Jesuits were established by Ignatius of Loyola. Ignatius of Loyola was the leader of a secret occult organization known as the Alumbrados (Spanish for Illuminati). On August 15,1534, Loyola started a sister organization to the Alumbrados, which he called the Society of Jesus, it is more commonly known today as the Jesuits. Loyola was arrested by the Dominican order of Catholic inquisitors, who were concerned with his growing influence and power throughout Europe. Because of his influential allies among the principalities of Europe, he was granted an audience with the pope. Loyola promised the pope his allegiance and agreed to do the bidding of the papacy throughout the world. Pope Paul Ill formally approved the Jesuits as a Catholic religious order in his 1540 papal bull Regimini Militantis Ecclesiae.

The influence of the Jews through the Jesuits in the Roman Catholic Church has been manifested from the beginning in Catholic doctrine. The Council of Trent was an attack on Christianity with anathema after anathema against Christian doctrine that was orchestrated by the Jesuits. The control of the Jews over the Vatican is so complete that Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger(now Pope Benedict X VI), who was the prefect Of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, issued an official doctrine of Catholic faith that accepted the Jewish view that the messiah is yet to come. There is apparently much double talk in the document, as it accepts the Jewish view of a coming messiah without overtly rejecting Jesus. Some have interpreted the document as denying the redemptive role of Jesus. The Catholic Church long ago implicitly denied the redemptive role of Jesus. The document is contained in a small book titled "The Jewish people and the Holy Scriptures in the Christian Bible." It is no surprise that this Jewish\Catholic doctrine was drafted by a Jesuit named Albert Vanhoye.

The Jewish influence over the Roman Catholic institution and its doctrines is manifest in The Document of the Vatican Commission for Religious Relations with Judaism §4, which states: "We propose, in the future, to remove from the Gospel of St. John the term, 'the Jews' where it is used in a negative sense, and to translate it, 'the enemies of Christ.'"

At a speech at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Roman Catholic Cardinal Joseph Bernadine stated:

[T]here is need for ...theological reflection, especially with what many consider to be the problematic New Testament's texts Retranslation and reinterpretation certainly need to be included among the goals we pursue in the effort to eradicate anti-semitism.

[T]he gospel Of John is generally considered among the most problematic Of all New Testament books in its outlook towards Jews and Judaism this teaching of John about the Jews, which resulted from the historical conflict between the church and synagogue in the latter part of the first century C.E., can no longer be taught as authentic doctrine or used as catechesis by contemporary Christianity ...Christians today must see that such teachings ...can no longer be regarded as definitive teachings in light Of our improved understanding.

In ancient Palestine the Jews worked hand in hand with the Romans to crucify Christ. Now, the Jews work hand in glove with the Roman Catholic Church in their effort to eradicate Christ's gospel. The great harlot of Babylon in Revelation 1 has Mystery written upon her forehead.

She is called Babylon because she is Babylonian. She is a mystery because she masquerading as ...

Sacrifice in the Kingdom Age

Apparently, Lacunza (a Jesuit) introduced the doctrine into Protestantism via the book "The Coming of the Messiah in Glory and Majesty" (1812) under the pen name of Rabbi Juan Josaphat Ben Ezra. Edward Hendrie argues that Lacunza was a Jewish Jesuit; Lacunza's Status as a rabbi is all the more believable when one considers the fact that he was a Jesuit and the Jesuits are a crypto-Jewish secret society. The first Jesuits were crypto-Jews.

Ignatius Loyola himself was a crypto-Jew of the Occult Kabbalah. Jews were attracted to the Jesuit order and joined in large numbers. Ribera was a crypto Jew. Lacunza would not be out of place as a Jewish Jesuit. Lacunza and Ribera being Jews would explain Why they introduced the eschatological teaching of a return to the Jewish animal sacrifices. That doctrine gives the Jews primacy in God's plan and relegates Christians to a prophetic parenthesis to be supplanted by the Jews during the supposed thousand- year earthly reign of Christ.

Lacunza wrote that during a millennium after the tribulation the Jewish animal sacrifices would be reinstated along with the Eucharist (the mass) of the Catholic Church. Lacunza has followed after Jewish fables and replaced the commandments of God with the commandments of men.
